OFFERS YOU AN OPPORTUNITY TO UNDERGO HEARTSAVER FIRST AID CPR AED

Anywhere, anytime, anyone can face a medical emergency !!

It could be at your workplace, public place or your home; it could be your colleague, your friend or yourself!!

If you have faced such an emergency, you will realize how important it is to know what exactly to do in the first crucial moments before a doctor or an ambulance arrives. Statistics prove that anywhere, in the world, even with the best of emergency medical services available, it takes a minimum of 10 minutes before the arrival of expert medical care. A sound knowledge of First Aid therefore is a must. It can make all the difference: it can save lives! The Symbiosis Institute of Health Sciences (SIHS), a constituent of the Symbiosis International University now offers you an opportunity to train as a "First Aider" in this internationally acclaimed Programme.
